

Ramakrishna Mission High School, Sitanagaram

Report on Communication / Entrepreneurship Course

Ek Kadam Aur, an NGO with its base at Chicago-New Delhi, as part of its on-going Academic Enrichment Activity at Ramakrishna Mission High School, Sitanagaram organised a 10-day Communication / Entrepreneurship Course in the school auditorium during June 3-14, 2019. Twenty Eight selected students of 10th Class attended this course.

Dr.Liz Goldenberg, Founder-Adaptology Institute, Professor-New York University and Associate-Harvard Business School gave a series of lectures and presentations and conducted group activities with the students in ten sessions during 10 days with one and half hours for each session. She dealt with different topics like Strategic Thinking, Decision Making & Divergence, Effective Communication, Personality & Motivation, Emotions in Work Place, Leadership & Social Influences, Managing across Cultures, Negotiations and Leading Change.

Dr.Liz with her tremendous erudition and command over the subject brought down the topics to the level of the school students with powerful delivery methodology. All the participated students felt elevated with the new knowledge that instead of becoming job seekers, they can also become job creators and realized the importance of innovation and entrepreneurship. Course Completion Certificates were issued to all the students who underwent this course.

Ramakrishna Mission, Vijayawada-Sitanagaram expressed its deep appreciation for the efforts of Ek Kadam Aur for imparting the knowledge of Entrepreneurship to its students and for organising the visit of Dr.Liz Goldenberg for this purpose. It is one of the unique events at the school during the recent years.
